BOND ISSUE BY A. & B. MFG. CO.

Issue of $500,000 is Secured by Mortgage upon the Providence and Bridgeport Plants—Proceeds for Corporate Purposes.

The $500,000 mortgage given by the American & British Manufacturing Company, as filed in the office of the town clerk, shows that the real and personal property of the company's plant in Providence and its plant in this city is included.

So far as the plant in this city is concerned the mortgage covers all buildings, structures, fixtures, fixed machinery, inventory, patents, rights and licenses which it now owns, or is entitled to. The mortgage is subject to a prior mortgage of $60,000 on the local plant, given by the American Ordnance Co. to Charles H. Homer, B. and Edwin G. Sanford, and recorded in May, 1906. The papers are signed for the company by Joseph W. Howley, president, and W. R. Sheldon, secretary, for the Empire Trust Company of New York, by L. W. Baldwin, president, and D. W. Gould, secretary.

The mortgage secures an issue of 500 bonds of $1,000 each, which bear interest at 8 per cent, annually, payable in semi-annual installments. The bonds are payable Jan. 1, 1915. The company is required to maintain an office in New York while the debt is in force for the purpose of receiving interest and principal. The company owns the Corliss engine works of Providence.

KING MANUEL TO LIGHTEN BURDENS OF THE PEOPLE

Portuguese Uprising Threatened Unless the Civil List of the Court is Greatly Reduced.

(Special from United Press.)

Lisbon, May 11.—In response to an urgent appeal from the King, King Manuel is to-day trying to lighten the financial burdens of the Portuguese people and ward off an uprising which has been warned will result unless at least the civil list of the court is greatly reduced. To the bankers who finance both the state and the city, the most oppressive monopolies have been granted and against them the feeling is intense. Customs duties between provinces and at city and village borders have become so heavy that shipment for any distance eats up the profit of most articles of commerce.

The most irritating of the burdens the taxpayers carry, however, is that of supporting the Queen-Mother and the aged Queen-Grandmother, Maria Pia. Both are foreigners who increase the feeling against them. Though very rich they exact the last copper that the law allows them. The Queen-Mother is particularly ostentatious but the Queen-Grandmother maintains a half dozen palaces and is so lavish in her tastes as to have been called the "bitterness" of the nation, a serious danger to the dynasty.

Weather Indications.

(Special from United Press.)

New Haven, May 11.—Forecast—Fair and cooler to-night; Wednesday fair and cooler.

The disturbance that was central near Pittsburgh yesterday morning has moved eastward and is now central in Maine. It produced local showers and thunderstorms in the eastern portion of the lake region and along the north Atlantic coast. Pleasant weather prevails this morning from the Missouri eastward to New England. A disturbance central in the Atlantic, which is cloudy weather with local showers in the western sections.

Conditions favor for this vicinity fair weather with quite low temperature to-night.

SPERRY'S "SHOW GIRL" A TUNEFUL COMEDY SATIRE

Large Audience Greeted the Twelfth Annual Local Production and Finds it Brimful of Fun.

Little Miss Steinmetz a Big Surprise and Charles Jewett and Charles Peck are Big Hits—Miss Margaret McKinney, the Star, Captures Her Auditors.

In Robert M. Sperry's "The Show Girl", which opened at Smith's theatre last night the author has accomplished what he set out to do, viz: "to write and present a series of amusing incidents and complications, accompanied by satire, localisms and burlesques on popular topics of the day, that will keep the audience in good humor."

There is a laugh every 30 seconds and the show is the best that has been heard at the theatre in a long time. John J. Reynolds, the director, has augmented the organization to twice its size and besides has the spirit of all of the music of the show.

The hit of the musical part of the performance was the singing of Miss Elizabeth Steinmetz of this city, especially in her duet with Frederick Sniffin in the singing of "Love in Moonlight." She has a clear soprano voice and every note was sung with a clearness that brought a storm of applause. She is the surprise of the show.

Miss Margaret McKinney, who is the star of the piece, singing the most difficult of the roles, is a most accomplished actress and a charming woman. She has entered into the spirit of the local production and puts much ginger into the show. Last night she rendered "Kiss a Little Girl Like Me" with the girls and boys of the chorus and was answered by Loren Delbridge from one of the boxes. This made a tremendous hit. After a week in Bridgeport winning audiences in a manner she did last evening, Miss McKinney will always be welcomed here.

The girl section of the chorus sings tunefully but in motion. It is the best in the numbers where it wears the most clothes. Their best number is the "Boo Hoo Man" where they are dressed as clowns. How they put as much animation in their work as a professional chorus. But as for the scene where they appear as clowns, the Mayor and some of the young ladies did not seem to feel at home, although they retained more clothes than the troupe artists wear in their costumes. But they were applauded for their courage, if not for their art. After recalling them three times the audience applauded a fourth time and loud, bringing forth Manager Sperry who announced that the "bathers" could not come out again as they were waiting for the next number.

The performance was replete with pointed local hits and all were so well given that each was greeted with delight. The Mayor and Association members were mentioned in a good natured and everyone connected with the city government comes in for a passing mention.

In the singing of "Plays on Broadway" the Mayor and Association members were mentioned in a good natured and everyone connected with the city government comes in for a passing mention.

The production is the twelfth annual offering of the Association of Town Officers. Officers were elected as follows: E. Peck, Miss Steinmetz, Charles R. Jewett, Miss Steinmetz, Mr. Sperry, and Miss McKinney, burlesque vaudeville, and the circus and minstrels. This is the big hit of the show. Miss Steinmetz's impersonations of Billy B. Van is extremely clever, while Mr. Peck as "Lew Dockstayer" and Mr. Jewett as "Prof. Atlas" are screams. Jewett took the audience by storm when he sang a "dumb, dumb, dumb" and broke horseshoes fresh from the foundry of the City Bakery.
